Organization

The Angora Club was organized on July 4, 1920. The charter members who effected the organization of the club very fittingly chose the summit of Saddle Mountain as the site of the ceremony. Today, very few of the original members are still active in club affairs but Saddle Mountain remains the Angora shrine. The principles and ideals set forth by the organizers still provide the inspiration for club activities. Minor changes have been made to cope with changing conditions, both social and economic, but the fundamental aims of the organization remain intact.

The Angora Club is organized for the purpose of fostering nature study, preserving and making accessible the many scenic places, and training its members to be real hikers.

Persons of the age of 18 and over, interested in the out-of-doors are cordially invited to attend the hikes and meetings of the Club.

MEMBERSHIP QUALIFICATIONS

Applicant must have climbed Saddle Mountain and made at least two major trips of the Club. Election to membership is by ballot of the Club. Dues are $2.00 per year.

The Angora Club welcomes the public to its outings and will be glad to admit to its membership those who are sufficiently interested to qualify.

MEETINGS

The Angora Club meets each Friday at 8 p. m. at the Community Hall in the City Park. Refreshments are served, good fellowship prevails, entertainment is provided and occasional instructive features are included in the program. The first meeting in each calendar month is open to members only, but at all other meetings guests are welcome. All persons interested in hiking, and particularly those affiliated with other clubs, are invited to attend the meetings.

HIKES

The same welcome of non-members prevails on all Club trips except on special trips, so designated, where limited facilities make it imperative that members be given preference.

A Leader Should:

1. Know where he is going and how to get there.
2. Take proper equipment for party such as rope, first aid kit, maps, compass, etc.
3. Know the personnel and ability of his party.
4. See that climbers are properly equipped for the trip.
5. Start early enough so as to complete trip by daylight.
6. Appoint a rear guard for entire trip.
7. Set pace suited for trip, conditions, and personnel.
8. Keep watch of progress of party and individuals, and check same frequently.
9. Not hesitate to turn back if weather or other conditions are unfavorable.
10. Be prepared, and know how, to overcome unexpected difficulties.
11. Instruct in special climbing technique.
12. Point out landmarks and keep party informed as to where they are.
13. Not relax vigilance at any time during trip.

A Climber Should:

1. Obey the leader.
2. Know the kind of trip and his ability to make trip.
3. Properly equip himself.
4. Be physically and mentally fit.
5. Stay behind leader and in front of rear guard.

8. Familiarize himself with trip both before and during trip.
9. Not take needless risks.
10. At all times endeavor to improve his climbing technique.

A Rear Guard Should:

1. See that no one leaves party.
2. Watch progress of climbers.

Remember:

1. We climb for pleasure.
2. The success of trip depends upon the cooperation of each individual.

SCHEDULE OF HIKES AND OUTINGS FOR 1948

JANUARY 11

Saddle Mountain—This first trip of the year can be most beautiful and interesting if the weather man will give us a little snow as in some former years. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 7 a. m. Estimated cost $1.50.

JANUARY 25

Beach Trip on Ranch—A real treat will be in store for us if we have a southwest storm as this is one of the high tides of the year. As the tide goes out we may find glass floats from Japan, or who knows we might even find one of the large steel ones with horns and filled with TNT. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 10:00 a. m. Estimated cost $.75.

FEBRUARY 7-8

Mt. Hood Ski Trip—Come and see the wonders of Mt. Hood with plenty of snow for the skiers. As guests at Mazama Lodge enjoy an evening of fireside fun and fellowship. Starting time to be decided later. Estimated transportation cost $5.00.

FEBRUARY 13

Homecoming—Our hearts are in this affair. Former members and would-be neophytes; join us for an evening of fun. Cost to be announced. 8 p. m. at Club House—City Park.

FEBRUARY 22

Angora Ranch—Note the date—Bring along your little hatchet—if you can't find a cherry tree to cut down we can find plenty of other species. I cannot tell a lie!

MARCH 7

Onion Peak—A number of years have passed since an Angora has visited this peak, in the most inaccessible part of the county. With the aid of logging roads it may not be too difficult. At any rate it will be an exploration trip for most of us. Prepare plenty lunch and be at Hildebrand's by 7 a. m. Estimated cost $1.75.

MARCH 21

Clam Dig on North Shore—If conditions are right Jim Jarvis has promised each participant in this trip the limit of clams. We'll see! Meet at Hildebrand's at 10:30 a. m. Estimated cost $1.75.

APRIL 4

Death Traps and Ranch—Ralph tells us we won't get much work done on the ranch after he has taken us through the traps. Not too rugged a trip tho. Meet at Hildebrand's at 10:00 a. m. Estimated cost $.75.

APRIL 18

Big Creek—This is a good trip for all. Drive your car near to good picnic places and good fishing. Hiking can be done on old railroad and logging road and new places can be explored. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 8 a. m. Estimated cost $.75.

MAY 2

Mystery Trip—What is the deepest mystery? Who will be the leader? Where will we go? When do we start? How much will it cost? Hint—Save your nickles and dimes; the date, May 2; assembling point Hildebrand's Store.

MAY 16

Soapstone Lake—Has recently been given a face lifting, or to be more accurate a surface lifting, and is much different in appearance than in past years. This lake can be approached by several different routes any one of which is an easy hike. Except for distant views the scenery is more varied than on any other scheduled trip. At this time of year it should be the place for an ideal outing. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 9 a. m. Estimated cost $1.25.

MAY 30-31

Saddle Mountain—This holiday weekend provides an opportunity for many hiking clubs to join us in our summer climb of the mountain. The wild flowers for which the mountain is noted should be out in profusion, and fine clear days for the view from the summit are on order. The road from Necanicum Junction to Base Camp has been improved and permission for overnite camping will be secured from State Park officials. Angoras will leave Astoria at 8 a. m. on 30th. Estimated cost $1.50.

JUNE 13

Sugar Loaf Mountain—If the logging road is open, this is an easy trip over good road to the base of the mountain. From there it is a steep climb to the summit for a wonderful view on a clear day. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 8:30 a. m. Estimated cost $1.00.

JUNE 27

Angora Ranch—This should be a work trip; but who wants to work on a nice June day? Go to church first but be at Hildebrand's at 12:30 p. m. to start. Estimated cost $.75.

JULY 3, 4, 5

Spirit Lake, Mt. St. Helens—See the wonderful scenery nature has provided. Snow capped peaks and beautiful lakes can be seen from the trails. Plenty of boating, swimming, fishing and hiking. This is one trip you will never regret. Be sure to bring your sleeping bag, tent and food supply. Starting time to be decided. Estimated transportation cost $4.00.

JULY 25

Gnat Creek Falls and Mt. Nicolai—This trip has been scheduled several times in recent years but no one has been on Mt. Nicolai. Most of the distance can be made on poor logging road and perhaps some by car in dry weather. The falls is a good scenic spot in logged off country and a wide view in all directions is had from Nicolai. Leave Hildebrand's at 8 a. m. Estimated cost $1.00.

AUGUST 8

Family Picnic at Ecola Park--Families and friends of the Angoras will find all the room they need plus the many scenic attractions here. Bring your horse-shoes or other sports equipment and a big basket of food. Cost and details to be announced.

AUGUST 22

Angora Peak--The most rugged of all trips scheduled in recent years, at one time attracted large groups. Why not have a large group again? The chief guide wants to prove that the trip can be made both ways by the same route. There is a good view from the summit. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 6 a. m. Estimated cost $1.00.

SEPTEMBER 5-6

Federation Convention--Attending a convention of the Federation of Western Outdoor Clubs is educational and interesting. The Chemetekans promised a good time also. Let's bring a large delegation. Details to be announced.

SEPTEMBER 19

Annual Corn Roast--This will most likely be a corn boil. Anyway its a great feast and a lot of fun. Bring your butter and salt. Corn furnished. Starting time to be announced. Estimated cost $1.00.

OCTOBER 3

Short Sand Beach and Cape Falcon—A half mile hike over good State Park trail to the beach on Smugglers Cove where both sun and water bathing is in order. Another mile of good trail to the Cape where there is a magnificent view of the Cove, Neahkahnie Mountain and the coast line northward. Leave Hildebrand's Store at 9 a. m. Estimated cost $1.25.

OCTOBER 17

Ranch Trip—By this time in the year we should be past the blueprint stage. Yes it's a work trip? Meet at Hildebrand's at 12:30 p. m. Estimated cost $.75.

OCTOBER 30-31

Halloween Party and Initiation—Let the witches and black cats roam at large. We hope to have some Neophytes to turn over to them, but don't worry, we always rescue you in time. Details to be announced.

NOVEMBER 14

Trip To The Ranch—Come along on this trip and see how high the walls are on our lodge—Perhaps you can make them higher. Meet at Hildebrand's at 12:30 p. m. Estimated cost $.75.

NOVEMBER 28

Lower Nehalem River—This interesting trip can be varied to desires of the group and according to the weather condition. A good fisherman should take home a few steel-heads, and for the view gazers, Buck Mountain is a good viewpoint. Leave Astoria at 7 a. m. Estimated cost $1.50.

DECEMBER 12

Christmas Tree Hunt—A opportunity to have a nice outing and get the family Christmas tree as well as one for the Club. Details to be announced.

DECEMBER 17

Christmas Party—We all enjoy the beauty of the Christmas spirit. Here we join in song and festivities of Yuletide. Bring a small gift for exchange. Details later. 8 p. m. at Club House.

DECEMBER 31

New Year Party—Last but far from least this is traditionally an outstanding EVENT. Join us in a potluck dinner and a long evening of entertainment and fun. Details of place and arrangements later. "WHOOPEE"!!!!
